Introduction

The purpose of the Austin History Center is to provide customers with information about the history and current events of Austin and Travis County by collecting, organizing, and preserving research materials and assisting in their use.

The collections of the Austin History Center contain valuable research materials relating to local art and artists. The materials in this resource guide are arranged by alphabetically by collection unit. Within each unit, items are arranged in call-number order.

For more information about art, crafts, artists and artisans in Texas prior to 1900, consult the William J. Hill Texas Artisans & Artists Archive from the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston: <http://texasartisans.mfah.org/>

Architectural Collections

This section includes archival collections related to architects and architectural firms that include materials related to art, artists, museums and galleries. If a finding aid (collection inventory) is available online, the URL is given after the collection description.

Periodicals

The Periodicals Collection includes newspapers, magazines, and newsletters published in or about Austin and Travis County. Titles listed here relate to art, artists, museums and galleries. The collection is arranged alphabetically by title. Titles can be found by looking in the Periodicals Index, located in the Reading Room. Date spans are listed in order to give the researcher an idea of what is available, but this does not mean that the entire run of a periodical for that date span is necessarily available.
