ARCHIVES & MANUSCRIPTS COLLECTION

The Archives and Manuscripts Collection contains primary research materials about people, organizations, governments, and businesses in Austin and Travis County. The collections below are arranged by call number. For detailed information about specific collections, please refer to the archives finding aids located in the Reading Room.

AR.1996.012	Alma Sioux Scarberry Papers, 1926-1990 Printed material, creative works, and correspondence document the life and activities of Alma Sioux Scarberry. Scarberry, born Alma Sue Scarberry, was born in Carter County, Kentucky on June 24, 1899. She changed her name to Alma Sioux upon finding out that she was part Native American (of the Cherokee tribe). Alma Sioux spent her life as a novelist, feature and serials writer, newspaper reporter, script writer, lecturer, actress, poet, Broadway performer, singer/songwriter, commentator, publicist, teacher, patriot, mother, and wife.
AR.2000.021	Otting Family Papers, 1885 – 1995 Correspondence, military records, newspaper clippings, legal and financial documents and photographs document the lives of the Otting family in Austin, Texas from 1885 to the 1950s. Lola Otting was part Cherokee and was allotted land in the Cherokee Nation, Oklahoma. She had only one of her children (Opal) enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.
AR.A.002	Rebecca J. Fisher Papers, 1847 – 1923 Correspondence, calling cards, invitations, creative works, and financial records document the community and political involvement of the woman called “The Mother of Texas.” Some material concerns Fisher’s childhood capture by Comanche Indians in 1840 in Refugio County.
AR.E.004	Jane Yelvington Legette McCallum Papers, 1914 – 1953 Papers of a leader in the women’s suffrage movement in Texas; contain a small amount of research material on Native American Indians and photographs of Alabama Indians in Polk County in the 1930s.

OVERSIZE ARCHIVES

The Oversized Archives is an artificial collection, consisting of items that are too large to store with other archives and manuscripts. It contains certificates, posters, broadsides, diplomas, artwork, and other oversize documents. The list below consists of oversize materials related to women that are not associated with an archival collection.

Box 006/021	Broadside: 'The Raven. Information about Sam Houston, his adoption by Cherokee Indians, and portrait of him entitled, "The Raven," by Thomas Woodburn. Courtesy of the National Bank of Fort Sam Houston. 1974.
